CANDIDATE STATEMENT

I am seeking the office of Division Director to serve my Toastmasters community in a new capacity while continuing to grow my leadership skills. Toastmasters has provided me with valuable opportunities for development, and I am eager to give back by supporting clubs and members across the division.

My primary focus will be increasing membership through engaging meetings and showcasing the strengths of our members, particularly during open houses. By highlighting the value of Toastmasters and creating welcoming, high-quality club experiences, I aim to attract new members while strengthening engagement and retention across the division.
